

Rika Coppens obtained a master's degree in commercial engineering at the KU Leuven, whereafter she kicked off her career as audit manager at PWC and CFO at Bureau Van Dijk Computer Services. After that, Ms Coppens was CFO at Zenitel and EFR Group (currently Eurogarages), where she became CEO. In 2017 she moved to the HR-world as CEO of House of HR and Accent Jobs. Since October 2020 she is fully concentrating on her CEO-role at House of HR. Under her guidance, the group realised a strong growth strategy and high profitability, with a focus on specialised niche markets and innovative HR-applications.

Ms Coppens has gained a vast experience in international mergers and acquisitions, audit and finance, with a keen eye for innovative business development, female entrepreneurship and 'human resourcefulness'. She calls herself 'missionary of work', holding a warm plea for work as the driving force behind wellbeing and welfare. She is a sought-after speaker and opinion leader in the world of entrepreneurship and HR. Within House of HR, Ms Coppens also founded the JobRoad Foundation, focusing on finding a job for people with a longer distance to the labour market, in this way advocating that work is a means to integration in society. In January 2023 Ms Coppens was granted the title manager of the year by Trends magazine in Belgium.

Ms Coppens is currently also a non-executive board member and part of the remuneration and nomination committee at Euronext NV, a non-executive board member at Colruyt Group and chair of the Audit Committee and a non-executive board member at La Lorraine Bakery group. All these entities also having a strong focus on sustainability, mainly in saving energy in facilities, the production or transportation process relating to food production and retail and in sustainable agriculture.
